E. Conduct Involving Third Parties

This Policy applies when, while on SES property or conducting SES business, Individuals encounter discrimination, harassment or retaliation from third parties, such as consultants, contractors or other personnel who deal with SES. This Policy also applies when an employee or student harasses or retaliates against a consultant, contractor or any other third person who contracts with SES. Harassment involving a third party is covered by this Policy and should be promptly reported. SES is committed to investigating and taking appropriate remedial action to end discrimination, harassment or retaliation involving third parties.

F. Sexual Conduct and Romantic Relationships

Sexual conduct and romantic relationships between students and employees are strictly prohibited as it may subject SES and the individuals involved to civil and criminal liability. Employees who have knowledge of a possible violation of this Policy must report it to the SES Human Rights Officer immediately. Failure to report this information is itself a violation of this Policy and can subject an employee to discipline, up to and including discharge.

G. Retaliation Prohibition

SES forbids reprisal or retaliation against any Individual who opposes any form of discrimination, harassment or bullying, files a complaint, testifies, assists or participates in any manner in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing, conducted by SES. Forms of retaliation

II. Reporting Procedures

Any Individual who believes he or she has been the victim of bullying, discrimination, harassment or retaliation, as set forth above, by any other Individual should report the alleged acts immediately to their building administrator who is then responsible for immediately reporting to the SES Human Rights Officers. If the individual is not comfortable reporting directly to their building administrator, they can report directly to the SES Human Rights Officers. The SES Human Rights Officers, Cara Sullivan or Richard employee who observes, overhears, or otherwise witnesses bullying, discrimination, harassment or retaliation, as set forth above, must immediately report the incident to the principal and/or SES Human Rights Officer, who will take prompt and appropriate interim action to stop the conduct and to prevent its recurrence until the matter can be investigated by one of the persons designated in this Policy. A written report of the incident and the action taken by the employee in response to it must be given to the principal or the SES Human Rights Officer.

Upon receipt of a report, the principal must notify an SES Human Rights Officer immediately, without screening or investigating the report. A written statement of the facts alleged will be forwarded as soon as practicable by the principal to the SES Human Rights Officer. If the report was given verbally, the principal shall personally reduce it to written form within 24 hours and forward it to the SES Human Rights Officer. Failure to forward any bullying, discrimination, harassment or retaliation report or complaint as provided herein will result in disciplinary action against the principal. If the complaint involves the building principal, the complaint shall be made or filed directly with an SES Human Rights Officer by the reporting party or the complainant.
